Re: United States v. Melsa Skrapalliu
Cr. Docket No. 20-660

Dear Judge Carter:

I represent Ms. Skrapalliu in the above-referenced matter. As part of the conditions of release, Pretrial Services is in possession of Ms. Skrapalliu's passport. Ms. Skrapalliu would like to travel Tirana, Albania, to visit her parents, who reside there. She would like to do that in the last two weeks of June and intends to make the trip with her son. The government (as per Sam Raymond) does not object to the travel or the temporary return of Ms. Skrapalliu's passport. Pretrial Services (as per Taelor Nesbith) deferred to the government. Should the Court grant this request, Ms. Skrapalliu will finalize her travel plans and provide a detailed itinerary and list of lodgings to Pretrial Services.

For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Skrapalliu requests that she be permitted to travel to Tirana, Albania to visit her parents and that Pretrial Services return her passport for that purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph V. Sorrentino

The application is GRANTED.
